Rowdyism at Washington Hall--A FEBRUARY 17th, 1871. To the Editors of the Intelligencer : To the Editors of the Intelligencer:

I wish, through your paper, to express a few thoughts which I hope may work a change for the better. Being a stranger in the City, and to make time pass away agreeably, I visited Washington Hall Saturday evening, and, I must say, I never saw anywhere such rowdyism, such disregard of law and order. The rufflans appeared to have it all their own way. If the police of your city know their duty, they are either too cowardly to discharge the police of your city know their duty, they are either too cowardly to discharge it, or utterly disregard the eath they take to see the law enforced. The City Council should take measures to compet the Sergeant to put a stop to this reckless disregard of order. The American Exchange Bank is now paying off, in gold, $8,000,000 of the prin-cipal of the State debt of Illinois. Part PROFITABLENESS .- Of course of these bonds were originally made as in sterling money, £225 to $1,000, and the Trensurer and New York Transfer Agent of the State, both of whom are now in the city, adjust the exchange on these

American gold coin. The gold draw on probably had some influence in the mar-ket, as the bulk of the bonds paid off were owned in this country. The trans action leaves, as heretofore remarked, only

82,000,000 of debt against the State, in bonds not due until 1877. The thirty years' history of the debt of Illinois has been a very eventful one, the prospect of payment being, for several years, so gloomy that the bonds sold in Wall street, at one time, (about the year 1842.)
